

AGENDA

November 12, 2004

“Welcome to Your Watershed”

- 8:15 am Meet at Greenville Chamber of Commerce
- 9:00 am Impacts of agriculture on water quality and ways to minimize erosion
Walker Farm, northern Greenville County
John Walker, Walker Farm
- 10:00 am Environmental, economic, and political impacts of poor site selection and planning
Montebello and Lowe’s, north side of Greenville
Jason Gillespie, Greenville County SWCD; Dan Trout, Friends of the Reedy River
- 11:00 am Sources of legacy pollution and opportunities for development
Union Bleachery and Poe Mill, northwest Greenville
Dave Hargett, Pinnacle Consulting Group
- 11:45 am Water quality protection and quality of life
Liberty Bridge, Reedy River Falls Park
Zane Meadors, Meadors Sandwich Shop; Tommy Wyche, Wyche Law Firm
- 12:00 pm The economics of environmentally-sound development
Falls Cottage, West End, Greenville (lunch talk)
John Knott, Developer
- 1:20 pm The downstream impacts of legacy water pollution
Lake Conestee
Dave Hargett, Pinnacle Consulting Group
- 2:00 pm Innovative stormwater management in a high-quality development
Redfearn development, Simpsonville
Jeff Randolph, The Randolph Group
- 3:00 pm Amenity value of beautiful, high-quality water resources in this watershed
Cedar Falls
Dan Trout, Friends of the Reedy River
- 3:45 pm Methods, results, and future uses of water quality modeling project
Reedy arm of Lake Greenwood
Hank McKellar, SCDNR
- 4:30 pm Changing a former milltown into a new “river town”
Ware Shoals
George Rush III, Mayor of Ware Shoals
- 5:00 pm Depart for Greenville; Arrive in Greenville at 5:45pm